All calling all artists		(CHR)
Kia ora everyone, we need you to submit your wonderful art to be included in this years EGGS collection of 2018 art. This will be a colour printed, fold out brochure which show cases a selection of the art created in 2018 by EGGS students. The brochure is called 'Te toi toki '18' which means 'The art stars of 2018'. You are invited submit work via email to Mrs Christoffersen. There will be a selection process due to the limited size of the brochure, please ask any questions around this. Email: mchristoffersen@eggs.school.nz
General Māori Language Week		(zRAM)
Kia Ora everyone! Next week is Te Wiki o Te Reo Māori - Māori Language Week! Te Reo Māori is one of the official languages of our country and the Māori culture plays a big part of our identity. The Kotahitanga Committee is hosting a Māori Expo at Lunchtime on Tuesday 11 in P1 and P2 where there will be poi making, weaving, rākau games, jam sessions, ink tattoos and a FREE SHARED KAI! On Friday 14 at lunchtime there will be a Junior Dodgeball Competition in the stadium so bring along your team of 20 friends. Hand in your feather with your special meaning for the school Korowai and to your tutor class by the end of this week. Please join us in celebrating Māori culture and we look forward to seeing you all get involved.
General Shakti poster competition		(zRAM)
Hi guys, thank you to everyone who entered Shakti's Poster competition!! We got amazing posters and will be putting some up in the L block corridor. Unfortunately we could only pick three winners so if you have not been emailed, then you have not won a prize. A reminder to the winners to collect their prizes some time this week, thank you :)
